Read the following passage carefully then answer the questions below:

It was only the second week of summer vacation. Jassem got bored
 His Mom got ready to work in the food kitchen. She worked three times a week serving lunch to people that were not as lucky as Jassem. Mom told him to come watch her. It was time to go, and Jassem was excited to try working in the food kitchen. He watched his mom put some turkey on a plate and some potatoes then, she passed it to the next lady, who put some green beans and bread on the plate. Jassem replaced a girl who had left early. He was in charge of putting salad on the plates. He served twenty-five people. After the kitchen had closed, he and his mom stayed to clean up. Jassem told his mom how much fun he had had. "I am so proud of you because you helped those people," Jassem's mum said.

In the jungle there was a special banana tree that grew a special type of banana.

The banana was golden that it sparkled, it was the most special fruit.

Every animal in the jungle wanted it, the king of the Gorillas was very strong, but not a good climber, he sat under the tree and shook it many times, he wanted to eat a falling banana. The king of the monkeys was not strong but he was fast climber. When the king of gorillas went, he jumped over the tree and picked a banana. The king of Gorillas noticed the plan of the monkey and he went angry. The Gorilla and the monkey had a battle for the rights to take the banana, while the two kings were fighting, they forgot to watch out for the tree, in that while the ant's queen took the chance of their fight and carried the banana away and shared it with her colony. The two fighting kings had lost the chance of tasting the banana because of their fight the banana's tree was destroyed. They would never again taste the sweet flavour of that special banana. Both of kings wished they had shared the banana together. Half a banana is better than none.
