Read the following passage then answer the questions

Helen packed a small suitcase and hurried out of the house to catch the bus to the station. It was already two o'clock. Her train leaves at two-thirty, and since it would take at least twenty minutes to reach the station, she did not have much time to spare. Just then a taxi came slowly down the road. Helen stopped the taxi and got in. She told the driver that she had to catch a train which leaves at two-thirty. Suddenly the taxi made an accident. She was wondering what to do when a bus came into sight, going in the direction of the station. She ran towards the bus. The bus conductor saw her running, so he did not ring the bell for the bus to start until she had got on. Helen reached the station just in time and managed to catch her train after all.
