Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

Japan is a group of islands in the south east of Asia. It is not a very big country, but it has a large population. Tokyo is the capital city. The sea is important for the Japanese. They cultivate pearls in the warm water around the islands. They also grow rice and vegetables. Japan is mainly an industrial country. Some of the best products like radios, televisions, computers, cameras and cars come from Japan and they are famous all over the world. So, "Made in Japan" is a trustful label.

The Japanese are very polite and active people. They work hard. They don't sit on chairs when they eat, they kneel on the floor. They don't use knives, forks or spoons. They use wooden chopsticks. Their favourite food is raw fish and rice. The Japanese writing is very strange. It has no alphabet as in Arabic or English. It has a system of pictures and their writing goes from top to bottom. Japan is a good model of a modern country.

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

It was a hot summer night. My family was all asleep except me. I was in my study room reading a story about a man who became very rich and famous after a lot of hard work. Suddenly, I heard a noise coming from the kitchen. I immediately thought it was a thief. I walked quickly to the kitchen. It was my little daughter, Sarah. She was looking for a bottle of water in the fridge. She found one on the floor near the fridge. A qwer3152

Luckily, I was close to her when she lifted the bottle to her mouth and drank a little. She began to cry aloud, so I looked at the bottle and was horrified to find out that it contained a chemical substance. At once, I put my index finger into her mouth and made her vomit. Then I called a doctor and told him what had happened and what I had done. He told me not to worry and that she would be all right soon.

Since that time, my poor little girl was very careful when she wanted to drink anything from a bottle. Last I told my wife firmly to keep all chemicals and medicines out of the reach of children

Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

One of the animals that live in the mountains of Nepal and China is red panda. These pandas typically grow to the size of a house cat but with a longer and heavier body. The red panda has reddish-brown fur, a long, furry tail, and its front legs are shorter than the back ones. Red pandas have large round heads. They use their big tails as wraparound blankets to get warm in the cold mountains. The tail helps them to climb trees easily.

Red pandas have excellent eyesight, hearing, and sense of smell. These senses help them search for food during night because during the day they usually rest. Red pandas eat too much of bamboo leaves about four pounds daily but sometimes, they eat eggs, insects and birds. Red pandas are not giant pandas. They are not bears. They're in their own family, they are raccoons. Other names for the red panda are lesser panda, Himalayan raccoon, and fire fox. According to scientists, red pandas are rare and unique animals.
