B. READING COMPREHENSION (14 MARKS)

Read the following passage then answer the questions below:

If you'd like to improve your English, one thing you can do is to build up your vocabulary. In order to do this, you have to practise a lot. But there are many effective ways. First of all, you should read a lot. You can read short stories, comics, newspapers and magazines depending on your English level.

As you read, you can try to guess the meanings of unknown words from the sentence. If you cannot, then look up the definition in a dictionary. English to English dictionary should be your first choice and keep the translator as last.

Another way of building vocabulary is to watch movies in English which will also help with knowing how to say words in English. Keep a vocabulary notebook to write down a few words each day. Keep in mind that you have to revise them regularly. In my opinion, to communicate with people all you need is words. Even if you just say the words one after another, people most likely will understand what you mean.

A) Choose the correct answer From a, b, c and d: (4x 2= 8 M)
